Introduction:

This seminar aims to discuss the amalgamation procedures which facilitates easier corporate restructuring exercises and mergers and acquisition of companies. It permits two or more Singapore companies to be amalgamated as one and does not require the sanction of the Singapore High Court.

The focus of this talk will be on the following:

- Standard Form Amalgamation
- Short Form Amalgamation
- Tax and Other Practical Issues

Speaker:
Mr Lo Kim Seng
Director, Arfat Selvam Alliance LLC

Mr Lo Kim Seng graduated with a LL.B. (Hons) and LL.M. from the University of London. He subsequently obtained an LL.M. from the National University of Singapore and an MBA (Finance) from Hull University. He also attended postgraduate legal studies at the law schools of both Sydney University and Melbourne University.

Kim Seng spent more than a decade as an in-house legal counsel and company secretary working in public-listed companies where he provided advice and support for their businesses in Singapore and the region. This included advice in relation to regulatory compliance, corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, insolvency and debt restructuring.

After joining Mrs Selvam’s team, he was involved in transactions such as mergers and acquisitions of listed companies, REITs, bonus warrant issues, private placements, rights issues, secondary listing of foreign companies and other listed company compliance work.

He is a Barrister & Solicitor in New South Wales, Australia, a Solicitor of England & Wales and an Advocate and Solicitor in Singapore.
